

Antique Mourning Sword For Civilian Or Military Use

200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : 95cm

Description

Beautiful antique mourning sword, probably intended for civilian or military use, featuring an elegant patinated metal frame. The handle sheathed in braided wire offers a good grip, while the sober, refined guard evokes 19th-century ceremonial models. The fine, slender blade still bears engraved decoration visible in places, testifying to meticulous workmanship. This type of sword was traditionally worn during official ceremonies or mourning. In very good condition with traces of time and oxidation consistent with its age.
