200 EUR

Description

A set of eighteen antique white porcelain plates, decorated with a thin light blue border that highlights the rim. A simple design, typical of the tableware produced by the Ginori factory in the 19th century. These plates bear no marks on the reverse; however, their provenance, together with their stylistic and technical characteristics, allows us to state with certainty that they are a Ginori production from the late 19th century. Good overall condition, with slight signs of wear consistent with their age.
