Description

Quick description Imposing old Christ on the Cross, folk art circa 1800. Composition made mainly of oak, with a large base carved from a block. Presence of a vanity, the serpent and the crown at the foot of the Cross. Christ having been formerly repainted with the paint flaking off, imparting a very interesting patina. The whole has been lightly scoured, the patina of time preserved and protected. Piece in good condition, very singular. Dimensions 110cm high.
