Description

Here's a very pretty Bohemian work from the early 20th century. It's a beautifully crafted vase that can easily be attributed to the Loetz factory in Austria. Indeed, considering the quality of the fused glass, with its iridescent purple and mordor reflections, the quality of the bronze and its Art Nouveau styling, we can only conclude that this is a work by Johann Loetz's glasfabrik, which, alas, had the unfortunate habit of rarely signing its production.
