Description

Carlo X-style mahogany chest of drawers. Top made of black marble; front featuring seven drawers, the first of which is set in the molded panel beneath the top; the third and fourth drawers serve as drop-down doors, concealing a compartment lined with green cloth on the interior, which consists of five drawers and an open compartment made of maple. Side panels with half-columns featuring twisted motifs, turned legs, oak interior, and flush brass vents. France, mid-19th century. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. Should any details not be clear from the photos, the information provided in the description shall prevail.
