800 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : de 12 à 16 cm

Description

Set of four traditional Sami spoons from Lapland, carved from reindeer antler. Three spoons are delicately engraved with a representation of a reindeer, while the fourth spoon features a more sober decoration. Personal objects with strong symbolic value, these spoons were worn on the belt in a leather sheath. According to tradition, they were offered by a man to the woman he was courting. Lapland, late 19th century. Good condition.
