Description

- Tapestry woven with the point tapestry technique features a floral design on a black background, 20th century work. - This rectangular rug features a semi of flowers in warm tones (red, orange) on a deep black background. This central field, with its successful contrasts, is framed by a border adorned with floral bouquets linked by a red listel also on a black background. This rug is reminiscent of certain weavings that the interior designer Henri Samuel used for his decoration projects (cf. the decoration of the Grand Salon for Jayne and Charles Wrightsman County Road, Henri Samuel Master of the French Interior by Emily Evans Eerdmans, p. 188) - Good condition, fully lined. - Dimensions - Width: 168 cm, Length: 258 cm
