

The Peaceful Hunter

70 EUR

Signature : Lucie Le Breton

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Linen

Width : 46

Height : 36

Description

Canvas scene of a man with a rifle slung over his shoulder returning home on the left, while four deer wait peacefully in front of his manor house, a weeping willow balancing the composition on the right. The image, unfortunately overexposed to light, is marked below, again in the same canvas technique, "offert par Lucie Le Breton à la meilleure des tantes" ("offered by Lucie Le Breton to the best of her aunts"). The piece is framed in a modern wooden frame, the image alone measures 20x29, 5 cm.
