Description

Elegant oval-shaped wall medallion, created in composition (plaster), depicting an allegorical scene of neoclassical inspiration. The decoration features a young woman accompanied by a putto, in a delicately treated plant environment, evoking the themes of love or spring. The whole is framed by a frieze of finely carved pearls and floral motifs, characteristic of the Louis XVI style. The fine relief and soft patina lend this piece undeniable decorative charm, ideal for a classic or romantic wall decoration. Perfect as a central element in an elegant interior, on its own or as a wall composition. Condition: Good overall condition, with light wear and patina from time. Epoque: 20th century, in the taste of the 18th century. Dimensions: Height: 73 cm Width: 64 cm
