Description

This ceramic bust was made by Royal Dux. The Royal Dux factory, a Bohemian porcelain brand, became famous in the early 20th century for its Art Nouveau-style productions. Around 1900, this important factory produced vases and figurines, often with female subjects, in exuberant decorations of flowers, leaves on shell bases, fountains... Porcelain was left in cookie form, gilded or painted, often in green. This ceramic is typical Art Nouveau, particularly for the vegetal and "Noodle" aspect. The lower part is iridescent in blue. We point out a small accident in the hair, the rest is in superb condition. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the object. For condition, please detail the photos. Feel free to zoom in. Photos are an integral part of the description. Dimensions: Height: 52 cm Width: 35
