

Bohemian Crystal Box With Hunting Scene Decoration, 19e Century

1 300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Crystal

Description

Bohemian crystal box dating from the 19e century, made in red-tinted glass with engraved decoration. It features hunting scenes composed of deer and wooded landscapes, executed in reserve by engraving work revealing the transparency of the crystal. The gilded metal mount emphasizes the contours of the box and is embellished with movable side grips. This type of production illustrates the expertise of Bohemian workshops in decorative crystal work in the 19e century. By its decoration and the quality of its execution, this piece is in the tradition of European decorative objects of this period.
