Description

Petite commode provençale d'époque 1900 - Style Louis XV
Charming little Provençal chest of drawers dating from around 1900, elegantly inspired by the Louis XV style. This piece of furniture seduces with its curved lines, harmonious proportions and the finesse of its carved decoration. The curved front opens with a wide drawer embellished with its antique fittings. The scrolled crosspiece is delicately carved with floral motifs, while the curved legs bring all the elegance typical of late 19th- and early 20th-century Provençal furniture. It was made in a very rare period in France. Crafted in a beautiful patinated wood with warm hues, this piece retains all the charm of the old and will easily find its place in an entrance hall, bedroom or refined interior blending authenticity and timeless
