Description

A very large transitional-style sideboard in marquetry with a trellis pattern enclosing quatrefoils and featuring rich gilt and chased bronze ornamentation.

Beautiful white marble top, six doors and five drawers in the front.

This model is inspired by a Jean-Henri Riesener (1734-1806) commode, who became a Master in 1768 and was the cabinetmaker of the Crown.

Exceptional piece for a prestigious residence.

Oak frame, very high quality craftsmanship.

Stamped with a crowned "CL" mark, Parisian work, mid-20th century, commissioned for a prestigious embassy in Paris. Very good condition
