

Basque Makhila Cane - Luxury Model - France, Early 20th Century

2 000 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Canne Basque dite makhila - luxe model - France, early 20th century Scarified medlar wood shaft. Steel trefoil. The bottom ferrule and handle are made of chased, blued and gilded steel (often called Toledo steel). When the handle is unscrewed, the steel stinger appears. A model with the same workmanship and probably coming out of the same workshop. model with the same workmanship, probably from the same workshop is preserved and exhibited at the Musée Basque in Bayonne. belonged to the writer Pierre Loti. However, Pierre Loti's makhila Loti's makhila is simpler and much less well preserved. Length 90cm Weight 321gr

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu

Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120