Description

Fine and rare Biedermeier walnut shelf, circa 1830. The piece has been restored and is ready to use. The surface has been refined with a new shellac, giving the wood a lovely warm sheen. The shelf features three oval storage surfaces and a light, elegant shape. It's not imposing, but rather delicate and decorative. It therefore fits perfectly into living rooms, hallways, bedrooms or as a special accent in a modern interior. Ideal for displaying books, small objects, plants, porcelain or unique decorative pieces. Dimensions: Height: 80.5 cm Width: 60 cm Depth: 44 cm Material: Walnut Era: Biedermeier, circa 1830 Condition: restored, ready for use Surface: new shellac Particularities: rare shape, three oval shelves, fine, light workmanship
