

Silver Chocolatière France 18th Century, Paris Circa 1775

2 400 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 24,5 cm

Description

Silver chocolatiere, XVIIIe century, Paris, circa 1775 Silver chocolatiere resting on a tripod base with openwork cartouche attachments. The clamshell spout is embellished with fillets and finished with a small ball. Turned-wood, screw-mounted side handle, the lid with scrolled thumb rest. Hammered work. Paris charge hallmark, 1775-1781. Letter-date of 1775 and hallmark for works intended for export stamped on the edge of the neck of the chocolatière. Goldsmith's hallmark: Jacques-Pierre Marteau, active in Paris from 1740 to 1779. Hallmark reproduced p. 203 of Poinçons de Paris, Henry Nocq, 1968 edition. Dimensions: Height: 24.5 cm Maximum diameter: 12 cm Weight: 842 g (without handle) Very good condition, no dents or bumps, no swaying of the feet. Traces of use.

<https://www.proantic.com/en/1760615-silver-chocolatiere-france-18th-century-paris-circa-1775.html>

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600