Description

Beautiful Biedermeier period chest of drawers circa 1840, crafted from a variety of hardwoods with a cherry veneer. The veneer has a warm color and lively grain, giving the commode its distinctive character. The chest has four drawers and offers plenty of storage space. The side columns, brass fittings and streamlined shape are typical of this period. It looks classic, but not overloaded, and therefore adapts well to different interior styles. Whether in the living room, bedroom or hallway, the chest of drawers is a practical and beautiful piece of furniture with a history. The chest of drawers is in perfect used condition. Dimensions: Width: 116.5 cm Height: 91.5 cm Depth: 59 cm Material: Cherrywood Era: Biedermeier Equipment: 4 drawers, brass fittings, side columns
