Description

Beautiful pair of stools from the Biedermeier period, crafted from solid cherrywood. The clean form, warm wood and simple lines are typical of this period and give the stools a timeless character that's easy to match. The seats have been newly upholstered and covered with high-quality upholstery fabric from Zimmer & Rohde. The blue-patterned fabric adds a beautiful touch and goes very well with the warm tone of the cherrywood. The stools can be used in many ways - as additional seating, as a footrest in front of an armchair, in the bedroom, in the hallway or as a decorative pair in the living room. Thanks to their streamlined shape, they are classic, but not heavy. The wood has been worked, cleaned and polished with a new shellac.
