Description

A globular cloisonné vase in enamels and silver wire, Nagoya school, decorated on a dark blue ground with numerous finely outlined butterflies in flight. The neck features a floral motif with chrysanthemums, while the upper and lower borders are enriched with ornamental bands of geometric and stylized patterns. The silver wire, applied in varying thicknesses, precisely defines the wings and movement of the butterflies, creating an elegant contrast against the dark background and enhancing the overall composition. Unsigned. Probably attributable to Ogasawara Shuzo. Period: Meiji period, late 19th century. Dimensions: 19 × 18 cm. Condition: Excellent condition.
