Description

Refined Italian designer chandelier from the 1950s, designed by Pietro Chiesa for Fontana Arte. Elegant brass structure with a large circular diffuser in etched glass decorated with delicate engraved floral motifs. A model of extraordinary elegance and craftsmanship, characterized by clean lines and details typical of the finest post-war Italian design. The light diffused through the frosted glass creates a soft and sophisticated atmosphere. A piece of great charm, ideal for refined settings and collections of signature design. Good overall condition with normal signs of aging.
