Modernist Art Deco Furniture In Lemon And Rosewood Ca 1930

1 890 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Restauré

Width : 78

Height : 92

Depth : 38

Description

Here's an Art Deco period multi-purpose storage cabinet.This is a Belgian work circa 1930.Its stripped lines characteristic of the modernist movement are beautifully enhanced by its two-tone décor campé of Ceylon lemon veneer on one side and rosewood on the other.It's embellished with attractive handles in nickel-plated metal, copper-plated and dark orange Bakelite.It has two drawers and a storage compartment at the top, and two doors at the bottom concealing five sliding shelves on one side.This piece of furniture has been fully restored in the traditional manner.It has been repolished with a pad in the traditional way.It is in perfect condition both cosmetically and practically.This piece of furniture can cope with many ailments, and its clean lines and small

Dealer

Galerie Passé Présent
Antiquités , arts décoratifs et arts plastiques du XX et XXI siècle-
Mobile : +32 496214845

Bruxelles 1000

footprint make it easy to use in many interiors.