

Askos And Situla, Grand Tour Vases In The Ancient Greek And Etruscan Taste

900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Length : 26 cm

Width : 21 cm

Description

Rare forms of ceramics in the taste of Greek and Etruscan productions A Situla vase with decorations of mythological scenes and large palmettes on the sides 21 cm accidents and minimal fillings on the base and bottom (the invisible parts)An Etruscan Askos in duck form decorations of winged characters. Length 24cm
No accidents

Dealer

Ars Longa

Fine Art ? Antique & After the Antique

Mobile : 06 30 55 85 75

14 Rue Beauregard

Paris 75002