Description

Second work I propose by Claudio Castelucho e Diana, in the studio series painted in Vichy. Signed lower left, its location is indicated in pencil on the back. This work displays the rapidity and luminosity of the brushstrokes, the liveliness of the painter, and the simple framing centered on the subject. The juxtaposition of color nuances, which capture the effects of light in a very particular way, give this work its rhythm. The Allier stretches along the riverbank, where a few touches of red enliven the landscape. It is presented in a recent frame.
