Description

Splendid and important "cocktail" ring by the renowned Italian haute joaillerie house BVLGARI, from the emblematic Fiorever collection. This multi-band model in 18-carat (750/1000) white gold is distinguished by its intertwined lines, entirely paved with diamonds, that embrace the finger to culminate in the central motif: a stylized four-petal flower, the line's signature, centered on a large brilliant-cut diamond. The design, both modern and sculptural, is inspired by the floral motifs of the mosaics of ancient Rome. The piece features the finest craftsmanship and finishes characteristic of Roman jewelry. Technical characteristics & Expertise: Material: 18-carat white gold / 750 thousandths Gross weight: 12.30 grams (large, massive piece) Finger size: 55
