Description

A very luminous and colorful painting depicting a Haitian couple whose man plays guitar surrounded by people posing in front of banquet tables full of victuals. Beautiful painting full of very fine details, the trees have a je ne sais quoi of Douannier Rousseau.Signed lower right Eugène Jean*.The canvas measures 60cm x 45cm.Delivery possible by chronopost for:France 30EUREurope 60EUROther 90EUR*Eugène Jean was born in 1950 in Trou-du-Nord. He is known for his humorous paintings depicting everyday scenes of the people. He observes and transcribes in his paintings the profound nature of Haitian peasants as well as that of modest, even poor, urban populations who take care of their living space, which must be clean and pleasant to look at.A naïve painter quite typical of the
