Description

Chest Of Drawers D'entre Deux En Acajou Du XIX Eme Siècle. Charming little chest of drawers D'entre deux in mahogany and blond mahogany veneer, veneered on oak dating from the first half of the XIX eme century. It features three drawers opening in front with their original working lock and draw keys. The drawers are dovetail-mounted, as are the uprights and crosspieces, guaranteeing quality assembly. The uprights are straight and terminate in straight feet with a slight protrusion including a small brass trim. The right front leg has undergone a small old restoration. The oak backs are original. Original marble made of a very fine molded Aleppo breccia. Beautiful waxed varnish patina of blond mahogany. Beautiful storage potential in the drawers. A small chest of drawers ideal between two windows or doors, for
