Description

Large blond cherrywood two-body, Louis XV, late XVIIIe century, French provincial work. This beautifully proportioned piece of furniture features an elegant front with scalloped and molded panels, embellished with carved rosettes and an overhanging cornice. The whole rests on discreet arched legs typical of provincial furniture of this period. The upper part opens onto a vast storage space with shelves and two small original interior drawers. The lower part also offers ample storage space with an interior shelf. Very beautiful antique patina of blond birch in warm, luminous tones. Antique fittings, lock and key are present. Authentic regional furniture with character, both decorative and functional. Delivery in mainland France 190EUR. Contact us for more information.
