Description

19th-century Viennese porcelain plate. Diameter 25 cm. The central decoration depicts a classical scene in the Neoclassical style, finely executed with beautiful shading and great delicacy in the faces and drapery. It has a small, barely noticeable chip on the back (see photo 5), which will be restored by our workshop. The decoration is executed in overglaze enamel. The rim is richly ornamented with gilding, raised enamel, and geometric and floral motifs typical of the Viennese style.
