available as wine glasses, champagne glasses and liqueur glasses - are unanimously rare. Liqueur glasses are particularly sought-after by collectors, as they offer the same quality as the larger formats while taking up less space. Ruby red is among the most prized and striking colors in the series - the luminous contrast between the green-fluorescent uranium glass stem and the intense ruby-red bowl makes this one of the most striking pieces in known production. Condition : Minimal signs of use, very well preserved considering age and quality. No chips, no cracks.Manufacturer: Rheinische Glashütten AG, Cologne-Ehrenfeld.Dating: Circa 1900Format: Liquor glassHeight: 13.2 cm - Stem diameter: 5.8 cm, - Cup diameter: 6.3 cmMaterials: Uranium glass (foot and stem) - Clear glass with ruby overlay (cup)Technique: Mouth-blown - Engraved decoration in two passes - Relief engraving with interior designBibliography: Schäfke, Werner, Ehrenfelder Glas des Historismus, Cologne 1979Several examples from this series are available.
