Description

Elegant cossus and pretty desk fauteuil in solid cherry wood , straight back and armrests , straight front legs with sabre back , fine amaranth fillets . Upholstered in Louis XVI blue velvet. This rare armchair of unprecedented density is in perfect condition, free of parasites in a tightly-woven fiber (heart of cherry felled in spring with natural anti-parasitic tannin by the rise of sap), with a blond coat adorned with fine amaranth fillets. Comfortable and sturdy, this ideal office chair is highly decorative in its line and natural blond color, with stylized pillastres at the ends of the armrests. Wide and deep, with soft yet firm upholstery, this handsome chair has all the assets to decorate a classic setting from slon to office. Remarkably well-preserved furniture in perfect "period" condition.
