

Traditional Sami Bone Knife - Scandinavia, 1st Half 20th Century Or Earlier

150 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Traditional Sami bone knife - Scandinavia, 1st half 20th century or earlier
The Sami are an autochthonous people of northern Scandinavia, Finland and the Russian border region, traditionally reindeer herders and fishermen. Bone knife engraved with a geometric symbol and a reindeer head. Length 25.5cm

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu

Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120