Description

An elegant and refined 44-piece Limoges porcelain tea and coffee service, beautifully decorated with rich green and gilt accents in a sophisticated Art Deco-inspired design. Produced under the "Limoges Unic" mark for 12 Rue de Paradis, Paris, this set combines the timeless quality of fine French porcelain with striking geometric ornamentation characteristic of the early 20th century. The service features delicate ivory-white porcelain enhanced by vibrant emerald green borders and finely hand-applied gilded detailing. The graceful shapes of the coffee pot, teapot, sugar bowl, and milk jug are accentuated by sculptural handles and elegant finials, creating a luxurious yet understated presentation. The combination of luminous white porcelain, warm gold, and vivid green gives the ensemble a particularly chic and decorative appearance, equally suitable for display or refined entertaining. This complete set includes both coffee and tea cups with matching saucers, allowing versatility for formal breakfasts, afternoon tea, or elegant dinner service. The pieces remain highly decorative while retaining the classic sophistication associated with French Limoges porcelain. A beautiful collector's set and a superb addition to an elegant dining room, vitrine, or Art Deco interior.
