Description

- Textile woven using the point tapestry technique, suitable for use as a wall tapestry or carpet, 20th century work. - This square-format tapestry features a symmetrical composition whose decoration is repeated six times. It features a colorful blossoming motif combining ornament and floral decoration. Its red, blue, yellow and brown tones contrast with the light blue background. The latter is framed by a border with a red background and a frieze of highly stylized fleur-de-lys motifs. - This weave is fully lined and has hooks on the reverse at the top, which can be hung like a wall tapestry. The hooks can also be removed for use on the floor as a rug. - Good condition, the colors are intact. - Dimensions - height: 215 cm, width: 150 cm
