

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

"Kings And Queens Of Great Britain" Silver Proof Coin Collection, Westminster Mint, 12 Coins, C

950 EUR

Signature : Westminster Mint

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

A twelve-coin silver proof commemorative set from the Westminster Collection's "Kings and Queens of Great Britain" series, struck 2001-2002, each coin a legal-tender issue from a British Commonwealth or Overseas Territory mint, presented in its original fitted blue velvet display case with accompanying certificates of authenticity. Each coin is struck in sterling silver to proof quality, with a diameter of 38.61 mm and a weight of 28.28 g, the obverse bearing a portrait of Queen Elizabeth II appropriate to the issuing territory, the reverse depicting the commemorated monarch with a small applied gold cameo vignette. The twelve coins comprise: Henry III (1216-1272), Ten Dollars, East Caribbean States, 2002. Edward I (1272-1307), Twenty Crowns, Turks and Caicos Islands, 2002. Edward III

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

(1327-1377), Ten Dollars, East Caribbean States, 2002. Henry VI (1422-1461 and 1470-1471), Twenty Crowns, Turks and Caicos Islands, 2002. Edward IV (1461-1470 and 1471-1483), Fifty Pence, Falkland Islands, 2002. Henry VII (1485-1509), Fifty Pence, Falkland Islands, 2002. James I (1603-1625), Twenty Crowns, Turks and Caicos Islands, 2001. Charles II (1660-1685), Fifty Pence, Falkland Islands, 2002. William and Mary (1689-1702), Twenty Crowns, Turks and Caicos Islands, 2001. George III (1760-1820), Ten Dollars, East Caribbean States, 2002. Queen Victoria (1837-1901), Ten Dollars, East Caribbean States, 2002. Queen Victoria, Five Pounds, Guernsey, 2001. The presentation case is of rectangular form in blue velvet, the interior fitted with a twelve-aperture velvet tray, the underside of the lid lined in white satin printed in silver with the title "Kings and Queens of Great Britain Coin Collection". The case includes clasp fittings to the front. Complete with the full set of twelve individual Westminster certificates of authenticity, each giving the biographical notice of the monarch depicted and the technical specifications of the coin. Total weight of sterling silver: approximately 340 g. Overall in excellent condition, the coins preserved in their original protective capsules, the case with very light spotting to the satin lining commensurate with age. Please examine all photographs carefully -- the items are in excellent condition and the photographs form part of the description.