Description

Charming oil on canvas by Austrian painter Stefan Simony depicting a lively harvest scene in a vast Central European rural landscape. The artist sensitively depicts peasants at work around a carriage, in a luminous composition opening onto hills and mountains on the horizon. The soft light, warm harvest tones and fine execution perfectly convey the peaceful atmosphere of the Austrian countryside at the end of the 19th century. A painter renowned for his landscapes and rural scenes, Stefan Simony here develops a painting imbued with naturalism and elegance, characteristic of the Austrian school of this period. The quality of the drawing, the depth of the landscape and the balance of the colors lend this work an authentic and timeless charm. A decorative and refined collector's work,
