Description

Eight-light chandelier made of Murano blown glass. Italy, early 20th century. Ø 100 x h 85 cm. Eight-light chandelier made entirely of clear Murano blown glass. The twisted central stem supports a bouquet of lanceolate leaves and applied flowers, from which eight curved arms branch out, ending in bell-shaped lampshades with scalloped edges, in the Art Nouveau style characteristic of early 20th-century Murano production. Electrified structure, to be inspected. Condition report: Good overall condition, with some signs of wear consistent with its age. Electrical system to be checked. All shipments within the EU are free and professionally packaged. This item is sold with a legally valid certificate of authenticity. Further details regarding the condition report are
