Description

An early 19th-century Coalport porcelain fruit cooler, circa 1810, decorated with cornflowers in red, blue, and gold, on a white ground, the liner absent. Measurements: Height: 28 cm Width (including handles): 24.5 cm Identification: We have only seen this finial on Coalport examples, which typically did not carry any maker's marks. Condition: The liner, a bowl that would have been suspended over the ice, is absent. The condition is otherwise very good. There are a few tiny original firing flaws and light wear to the gilding of the rim. Shipping: Free to UK, EU, Canada, Australia, Asia, USA, and most other destinations. Please note that any import charges/sales tax are the buyer's responsibility. Please note that for sales to the USA, state sales tax may be charged in advance.
