

Small Stand For Opium Pipe Bowls

850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Rare little opium cabinet with three openings for pipe bowls and two small sliding doors. It is constructed from a superb exotic grained wood (huanhuali?) and bears exquisite mother-of-pearl inlaid decoration. This same model also exists, in a slightly larger size, to accommodate four bowls (photo). Dimensions: 270 x 70 x 110 mm. Weight: 605 g. Sold alone, without accessories. Free delivery in France by Colissimo suivi. Ref.: Amero & Rapaport, 2005: "The Arts of an Addiction", p. 86. F. Bertholet, 2007: "Opium - Art and History of a Lost Ritual", p. 172. For a similar example, with four holes, see Arts of Asia, March-April 1995 (Barton Collection) For other opium paraphernalia see our site at : lamalledugouverneur.com
