Description

Beautiful Siassi dish or "food bowl" in hard wood with a beautiful patina of use. This prestigious object has two functions : a customary function consisting of using it as a dish during ceremonial rites, but also as an object of exchange between the tribes of the Tami and Siassi islands and the tribes of other islands or the coasts of the mainland. Engraved tribal drawings evoking ancestors and totemic animals (fish, birds). Exceptional piece thanks to the finesse of the carvings. Unique piece in very good condition, sold with a presentation base. Approx. 68 x 34 x 16 cm / 1700EUR including base and shipping for Europe.
