Description

Our two players, comfortably seated in a living room or artist's studio, are playing a game of chess that seems 'tight', but to the advantage of the player on the left, who appears more 'relaxed'! If the scene can be placed in the 18th century, the work is 19th century and comes close to the painting by J.L. Ernest Meissonnier: "The Chess Players, 1856". Nice original gilded frame (46x55).
