Description

A striking oil on canvas belonging to the 19th-century Roman school, depicting a vast romantic landscape enlivened by a village at the foot of a hill dominated by a ruined castle. The composition unfolds through a refined succession of perspective planes, featuring trees, a stream, and small figures immersed in nature. The work presents a pleasant, luminous, and poetic atmosphere, typical of 19th-century Roman landscape painting, influenced by classical tradition and Romantic sensibility. Particularly noteworthy are the warm tones of the vegetation, the delicacy of the sky, and the scenic depth of the composition as a whole. Dimensions: 59 x 50 (with frame) 45 x 36 (without frame) ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:
