Description

Oil on canvas by Giovanni Polli (Trieste 1826-1861), depicting a young girl engaged in embroidery, captured in a delicate profile illuminated by a soft, intimate light. The work stands out for its refined rendering of light and for the painterly sensitivity in the definition of the face and hands, elements that lend the scene an intimate and poetic atmosphere. The composition, clearly influenced by the 19th century, features warm tones and an elegant contrast between the dark background and the emerging figure, enhanced by the red dress and the whiteness of the embroidered fabric. Signed in the upper right corner. Dimensions: 82.5 x 62 (with frame) 62 x 51 (without frame) ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:
