

Pair Of Empire Flambeaux - Claude Galle

35 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

An elegant pair of monumental French Empire-style candelabra, attributed to the renowned Parisian bronze artist Claude Galle (1759-1815), the undisputed master of decorative bronze work in the early 19th century. The candelabra feature a refined neoclassical female figure, inspired by ancient iconography, crafted in dark-patinated bronze and embellished with finely chiseled and gilded details. The figures support a five-light structure in gilded bronze, characterized by sinuous arms decorated with plant motifs and rich classical ornamental elements. The architectural bases, also decorated with gilded lyre motifs, lend the ensemble great compositional balance and exceptional visual impact. The quality of the chiseling, the elegance of the proportions, and the contrast between the

Dealer

Antichità Goglia

furnitures, sculptures, paintings, pendulum clock

Tel : 0039 3476092521

Mobile : 0039 3476092521

Napoli 1

Carinaro 81032

burnished patina and the mercury gilding attest to the exceptionally high craftsmanship of French workshops during the Napoleonic era and the Restoration. A pair of great prestige, ideal for important classical settings, decorative arts collections, or historic residences. Period: 19th century; Provenance: France; Dimensions: 80 x 45 cm; Condition: Excellent condition; Documentation: Certificate of authenticity; Assistance: We are at your disposal for further clarification, information, and images; Shipping: Available throughout Italy, Europe, and the rest of the world. Reasonable prices, maximum security, and full traceability. (To be agreed upon privately). We wish you a good day
Antichità Goglia