Description

Signed silk-on-silk Hereke rug | Special Sultani design | Very finely knotted This signed silk-on-silk Hereke rug exemplifies all the refinement of the great Turkish textile tradition. Crafted with extreme finesse, it features a richly detailed floral decoration organized around an elegant Sultani-style central medallion, in a soft, luminous palette of shades of cream, coral, pastel blue, celadon and pale gold. Reputed among Turkey's most prestigious rugs, Hereke carpets are distinguished by the exceptional quality of their knotting and the finesse of their designs. This example, woven in silk on silk, offers a delicate sheen, a very precise reading of the motifs and a touch of great suppleness. With a claimed density of around 1 million knots per m², this carpet stands out for the delicacy of its
