Description

Terracotta bust inspired by Michelangelo's David. Elegant decorative terracotta bust, inspired by the classical aesthetics of the Italian Renaissance and the famous representations associated with Michelangelo's David. This sculpture depicts a serene, expressive face, framed by rich, finely modeled curls, evoking the harmony, nobility and balance characteristic of classical art. Its dark patina, deliberately aged, reinforces its ancient character and artistic presence. Rendered with fine attention to detail, this bust captivates with its graceful proportions and fine modeling. It is a decorative object of character, capable of blending equally well into a classic or contemporary interior. With its timeless look, this bust is a real eye-catcher. With its timeless allure, this sculpture will find a perfect
