Description

Modern Italian Murano glass forest green table lamps, faceted, hand-signed by Andrea Dona. These forest green Murano glass table lamps with their tapered shape are heavy and solidly constructed (weighing 5 kg each) and feature a design that is both elegant and striking. Their handcrafted glass body, with a diamond-cut finish, features a transparent segment at the base (Sommerso technique) and a deep green gradient towards the top, all set in crystalline Murano glass. The multiple asymmetrical facets lend elegance to the architectural character, while reflections are created by the prism effect and the refraction of light on the colored core. The conical silver-gray shade in lightly textured Bourette silk echoes the shape of the glass base and completes the lamp's appearance. The nickel-plated metal
