Description

Christ in carved wood, probably walnut, late XVIIIe century work. Beautiful early sculpture depicting Christ on the cross, characterized by great sobriety and fine craftsmanship. The face with closed eyes, imbued with gentleness and contemplation, presents a particularly appeased expression. This work exudes a strong spiritual and decorative presence, typical of late XVIIIe century religious art. Dimensions: 71 cm high. Very fine piece of sacred art, ideal for a collection or character decoration.
