

Antique Painted Box From Tyrol, 19th Century, Made Of Bent Beech And Fir

120 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

Beautiful box made of curved beech wood with a fir wood base, crafted in Tyrol in the late 19th to early 20th century--depicting dimensions:W 11.5 x H 8 x D 6This is a hand-painted Tyrolean box made of bent beech and fir, a refined example of Alpine folk art dating from the late 19th or early 20th century.Main FeaturesTechnique and Materials: The side walls are made of thin beech wood, steam-bent (curved wood) and joined with small handcrafted nails, while the bottom is typically made of fir.Decoration: It features abstract floral and geometric motifs in a folkloric style, hand-painted in vibrant hues (red, orange, yellow, and green) on a dark brown background.Historical Use: Objects of this type were used in the Alpine regions and Tyrol to store small personal items, sewing kits, tobacco, or as

Dealer

Antichita' Taddei Gilberto

arte antiquariato XVII XVIII XIX SECOLO

Tel : +39 3313821818

Mobile : +39 3313821818

via masini 135

Castelfiorentino 50051

gift boxes for weddings.