Born in Verona and naturalized in France, he left a lasting mark on the Savoyard artistic landscape with monumental sculptures such as La Sarrazine or La Dame du Vent. Birth: 1946, Verona (Italy) Death: October 5, 2013, Savoie (France) Installation in France: 1949, in Myans then Chambéry Main workshop: Apremont, Mont Granier Public works: Le Dernier des Justes, La Dame du Vent, Sarrazine Career and training Arrived as a child in Savoie, Benedetti first trained as a mason, inheriting the tradition of builders that he claimed all his life. After studying technical studies in construction, he discovered sculpture during his military service in the Ardennes. In 1975, he opened a small studio in Chambéry small workshop in Chambéry, where he worked relentlessly, developing an artisanal, almost ascetic approach to the craft. Style and artistic approach His materials of choice were bronze, stone and wood. Benedetti sought to translate "human thought" into matter, exploring the limits of time and form. His art combines constructive and lyricism, often embodied by the female figure, symbol of the of an "eternal femininity" celebrated in his Dames. Inspired by his friendship with cartoonist Hugo Pratt, he combined exacting formal standards with a sense of poetic narrative. Works and recognition His monumental sculptures dot the Savoy region: Le Dernier des Justes at Aix-les-Bains, La Dame du Vent at Savoie Technolac, Sarrazine overlooking Lac de Tignes, or the bust of Pierre Dumas in the Fréjus tunnel. In 1986, he and Pino Castagna founded the "Ambassade" a manifesto in favor of harmonious art accessible to all. accessible to all. Heritage A hard worker and discreet poet, Livio Benedetti has left us a dense body of work both modern and timeless. His public creations, bronzes and writings his writings testify to a quest for shared beauty, rooted in the mountains DELIVERY ONLY PARIS ILE DE FRANCE FOR 120,00 EUROS For other transport give me your zip code and city to make a request to the carriers.
