Description

Charming farmhouse table in cherrywood, dating from the late XIXe century, featuring a lovely warm patina and a harmoniously proportioned top. It rests on four turned legs, elegantly shaped, giving it an authentic, traditional look. The piece features two drawers, one at each end, offering practical everyday storage. One of them is also equipped with a sliding shelf, an appreciable feature typical of antique worktables, allowing you to punctually increase the useful surface area. Solid, functional and full of character, this farm table will easily find its place in a kitchen, dining room or interior seeking the charm of period rural furniture.Epoque: Late 19th Very good condition Waxed finish Delivery possible in France and internationally on quotation.
